

IT ALL STARTED WITH A SPARK

A spark of an idea to build a special kind of gathering place.

Almost a century ago Russian logger Ivan Sesow built the Wonder View Log Pavilion as a roadside dancehall. With its infamous “sin cabins” and bootleg liquor, the 1924 roadhouse earned a rowdy reputation.

In 1938, the Parrish and DeSchweinitz families acquired the property, dubbing it Johnny Seesaw’s as a nod to its founder and developing it as one of the area’s first ski lodges.

Countless patrons, parties, fireside chats and wild nights later, the inn still celebrates all things Vermont in the same convivial spirit.

Incorporating local ingredients with a fresh twist, our menu celebrates Vermont and elevates comfort food. We ask for your patience on busy evenings as every dish is prepared to order
